Government Order No. A. F. 556-7—A. H. 128-44-4, dated the 25th May 1946, sanctioning a scheme for starting a school for the training of Veterinary Stockmen at Hebbal for one year from 1st July 1945.

2. Government Order No. A. F. 730-31—A. H. 202-45-2, dated the 29th July 1946, sanctioning the continuance of the school for the training of Veterinary Stockmen at Hebbal during the current year 1946-47.

3. Letter No. C. 2-4—45-46, dated the 11th July 1946, from the Superintendent, Veterinary and Animal Husbandry Services, submitting proposals for the provision of hostel facilities to the students of the Stockmen Training School at Hebbal.

ORDER NO. A. F. 1556-7—A. H. 202-45-4, DATED BANGALORE, THE 4TH SEPTEMBER 1946.

The Stockmen's Training School, which was started last year at Hebbal, has been continued during this year also. The Superintendent of Veterinary and Animal Husbandry Services reports that last year the authorities of the Hebbal Agricultural School accommodated the Stockmen Students, that they have pleaded their inability to do so during the current year, as they have to provide accommodation to the fresh batch of students of the Agricultural School as well as to the students of the Agricultural College that has come into existence this year.

The Superintendent, therefore, states that with a view to providing immediate facilities to these students he has arranged, in consultation with the Executive Engineer, Bangalore, to go in for some Nissen Huts from the Army and fix them up at an approximate cost of Rs. 8,750 as detailed below, for accommodating the present batch of students.

	Rs.
Cost of 5 Nissen huts at Rs. 900 each ...	4,500
Erection charges at Rs. 500 each ...	2,500
Alterations to the Johnes Shed to provide kitchen, dining room and bath room.	1,000
Purchase of vessels for the Hostel ...	750
Total ...	8,750

He further states that the huts will be erected on the premises of the Mysore Serum Institute as an adjunct to the present Johne's Disease Shed which will be suitably alterated to provide facilities for kitchen, dining room and bath rooms at an additional cost of about Rs. 1,000 and that as regards the recurring expenditure for the maintenance of the hostel an allowance of Rs. 50 per mensem may be paid to the Warden of the hostel and that a cook on Rs. 30 and two servants on Rs. 12 per mensem each may be provided temporarily at a cost of Rs. 1,248 per annum as detailed below :—

	Rs.
Allowance to Warden at Rs. 50 per mensem.	600
Pay of cook at Rs. 30 per mensem ...	360
Pay of 2 servants at Rs. 12 per mensem ...	288
Total ...	1,248

The Superintendent adds that in view of the urgency of the matter he has, in anticipation of Government sanction, requested the Executive Engineer, Bangalore, to obtain necessary huts and proceed with the erection work immediately.

In the circumstances, Government are pleased to sanction the proposals of the Superintendent of Veterinary and Animal Husbandry Services, with the modification that the allowance to the Warden may be limited to Rs. 30, the pay of the servants to Rs. 11 each and that of the cook to Rs. 20 as in the case of Agricultural School Hostel at Hebbal.

The action taken by the Superintendent, Veterinary and Animal Husbandry Services in this connection in anticipation of Government sanction, is also approved.

Government Order No. E. 5790-91—Edn. 93-44-6, dated 26th May 1945, sanctioning, inter alia the opening of four hundred New Primary Schools in the State during the year 1945-46.

2. Letter No. P4. 3018-197 of 45-46, dated 1st June 1946, from the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore requesting sanction for the opening of 400 New Primary Schools during the year 1946-47.

ORDER NO. E. 1626-28—Edn. 147-45-3, DATED BANGALORE, THE 3RD SEPTEMBER 1946.

The four-year programme of expansion of Elementary Education initiated in the year 1941-42 stipulated that all villages or groups of villages with a population of 500 and above in the maidan and 300 and above in the malnad should be provided with Primary Schools by the end of the fourth year. During the first three years alone, 1,096 Primary Schools were opened and sanction was accorded to the opening of 400 more Primary Schools in each of the years 1944-45 and 1945-46, the total number of schools opened during the last five years being 1,896.

The Director of Public Instruction states that there are still many villages with a population ranging from 300 to 500 in the maidan and 200 to 300 in the malnad without schools, that there is demand for more Primary Schools in the Rural Welfare Centres at Closepet, Dodballapur and Anandapura and also in the 164 hoblis selected for Rural Development work and that there is large demand for Primary Schools from the people in the countryside as a result of their realisation of the value of education.

In the circumstances, the Director recommends the opening of 400 New Primary Schools during the year 1946-47 involving an expenditure of Rs. 1,61,400 (rupees one lakh sixty-one thousand and four hundred per annum recurring and rupees sixty thousand non-recurring) as detailed below :—

400 teachers at Rs. 20 per mensem ...	Rs. 8,000 per mensem or Rs. 96,000
S. L. A. for 100 teachers at Rs. 1-8-0 per head.	Rs. 150 per mensem or Rs. 1,800.
Contingent grant at Re. 0-8-0 per teacher per mensem for 400 teachers.	Rs. 200 per mensem or Rs. 2,400.
Money order commission, annas four per teacher for 400 teachers.	Rs. 100 per mensem or Rs. 1,200.
	Total recurring Rs. 1,01,400. per annum

Non-recurring charges.

For articles of furniture and other equipment at Rs. 150 per school for 400 schools Rs. 60,000.

The recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction is sanctioned. The cost required during the year 1946-47 will be met out of the sum of Rs. 3,00,000 provided in the current year's budget (Appendix S) for post-war scheme under Primary Education and necessary provision will be made in the budgets of the succeeding years.
